

“All live all the time.” Amber Wild started in January 2023 with one simple goal: make the kind of music they wanted to hear. Fiery guitars, thunderous drums, and raw vocals filtered through a kaleidoscope of influences make for something that’s the right amount of familiar and fresh.

After spending the year developing their sound on the L.A. club circuit, Amber Wild made their festival debut at this year’s Aftershock in Sacramento.

October shaped up to be a big month for the band with the release of their double-A side debut single “Breakout // Silver” on the first night of Amber Wild's run directly supporting KISS on their End of the Road Tour in the United States. And while it may have been the end of the road for KISS, it’s just the beginning for Amber Wild.
